Thank you to Safeway Supermarket for sponsoring the sodas, Josh Lewis/Lewis Caterers for providing all the delicious food, the amazing "grill team" consisting of Dovid Khaver, Isaac Klein, Yanky Lefkowitz, and Marc Rosenbluth, and of course the many youth volunteers who helped with all parts of the event. A special thank you as well to Jon and DJ Schneider Jensen, for keeping all the kids entertained with the amazing face painting, magic show, and balloon twisting.

Daily Gemara Shiur Seeking A Few Good Men

We're looking for a few good men to join our daily Gemara shiur, which is just about to finish Maseches Rosh Hashana. After Succos we will be starting Maseches Sotah, which has some fascinating topics you wouldn't expect, such as how a Jewish army conducts itself and how to atone for an unsolved murder. There is also a great wealth of material regarding the stories and characters in Chumash and Navi.

Timing and Location: 7:45-8:15, Monday-Friday in the Board Room.

Pace: A Blatt a Week. This allows us to coordinate with a larger group who learn privately at the same pace. Monday nights we can join them for an in-depth shiur on last week's blatt.

Perks: Free coffee and tea. Occasionally, free duplex creme cookies loaded with chemicals.

About the group: We are sassy, opinionated and have a sense of humour (some more than others). Some of us are retired; some of us can only dream of that day. Some of us travel the world; some of us have never been past Reisterstown Road. But we all love to learn, and have so much fun that when the shiur is over, it seems like only half an hour has gone by.

Bonus: We sometimes start the day with an outrageous Chayei Adam from his little-known Chapter 68, which uncovers secrets of doing mitzvos.

There are a couple of seats left. You know what to do.

For more information, please contact Shlomo Horwitz at horwitzes@gmail.com.
